

In collaboration with the

PUBLIC POLICY MAKING ACADEMY

FORMAL TRAINING FOR MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS

Offered by UCI Division of Continuing Education and the Association of California Cities – Orange County, Public Policy Making Academy provides new city and municipal elected officials, as well as anyone interested in local government policy making, the knowledge needed to become adept at public policy making in key city government areas.

Public Policy Making Academy I

Fridays: February 22 and
March 1, 8, 15, & 22, 2019

8:00am-1:00pm

UCI Continuing Education Building

Course fee: $550

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Francine Berg, program representative
(949) 824-4661, fberg@uci.edu

STUDENTS WILL ANALYZE:

- Funding sources for municipalities including taxation, bonds, and other types of revenues
- How local governments interact with developers, housing agencies, and non-profits to meet housing needs within their city and county
- How cities and counties assess and develop plans to meet their transportation needs
- Emerging issues facing local, county, and state governments, specifically pensions, homelessness and mental health, and residential recovery reform

BENEFITS

- Acquire a depth of knowledge in a variety of complex, public policy and governance issues to become a well-informed civic servant.
- Learn firsthand from practitioners working in the areas of municipal finance, land use, housing, transportation, and economic development.
- Students who successfully complete the course of study will receive a Certificate of Completion.